

Named GP

All patients at The Medical Centre Group have a “Named Allocated GP”.

If you are not sure who your GP is, please ask at reception.

Your Named Allocated GP will be the one who reviews your medication, oversees the management of any long term conditions you may have, reviews your hospital discharge letters etc. It doesn't prevent you from seeing another GP as he/she will liaise with your named GP regarding any care they give you.