

Training Practices in Kent, Surrey and Sussex

Information for patients

This practice has been accredited to train doctors intending to become general practitioners.

The practice needs to be regularly inspected and only doctors approved for this purpose will carry out the assessment.

Sometimes the doctor may wish to video record their consultations and patients may therefore be asked to sign a letter of authorisation to permit this. Your permission will always be requested beforehand.

Further information about training in this practice is available from the receptionist.